Implementation of 'Project Inclusion' a digital App developed by Aurobindo Society to promote inclusive practices in APS, APPS Schools & ASHA Schools

1. It is to inform that the "Project Inclusion" initiative has been approved for implementation across all Army Public Schools (APS) and Army Pre-Primary Schools (APPS). This program, developed by the Sri Aurobindo Society, aims to assist teachers and parents in screening children with functional difficulties in cognition, academics, speech and language, socio-emotional, and motor abilities.

2. Project Inclusion App: This free app, created by the Sri Aurobindo Society, is designed to support inclusive education in line with NEP 2020 and RPWD Act 2016. It addresses the shortage of special educators in schools and helps identify and retain students with special needs by bringing their hidden disabilities to light.

3. Key Objectives:

- Sensitize and assist teachers and parents.
- Support students with special needs.
- Improve retention rates for these students.

4. You are requested to

1. Ensure adequate resources and logistics support to all teachers for necessary training and workshops.
2. Dedicate one school coordinator for the three-phase implementation from each of the APSs and APPSs.
3. Promote access to the Project Inclusion app and Learning Management System (LMS).
4. Ensure participation in the online orientation sessions and capacity building for teachers and special educators from Foundation to Grade XIIth conducted by Sri Aurobindo Society.
5. Ensure participation in doubt-clearing and hand-holding sessions as needed.
6. Access the updated relevant content repositories.

5. It may be noted that

1. The Aurobindo Society will receive no funding from AWES or Command HQs .
2. They will use their funding sources to achieve the objectives of the MoU.
3. Training, which is free of cost, should be rolled out in all 136 APS, 250 APPS, and 32 ASHA Schools mandatorily.

6. You are requested to Circulate and promote the following links and password amongst your faculty and staff who can benefit from learning more about Inclusive Practices and work with students directly or indirectly
